TELEGRAPHIC NEWS OF THE

That the Free Staters are actively sowing dissafection among the Basutos. It is believed that some of the minor chiefs have received their advances not unfavorably. A Basuto chief to Pretoria to the Free State, but recently took the son of a Basuto chief to Pretoria to show him the British prisoners there as proof of the Boer victories. It is believed, however, that with Chiefs Jonathan and Lerothodi, loyal and even desirous of attacking the Boers, these intrigues will not result seriously. Great I Daily Chronicle from Free Camp. That the Free Staters are actively sowing dissafection among the Basutos. It is believed that some of the minor chiefs have received their advances not the Free State, but recently took the son of a Basuto chief to Pretoria to the Free State, but recently took the son of a Basuto chief to Pretoria to the Free State, but recently took the son of a Basuto chief to Pretoria to the Free State, but recently took the son of a Basuto chief to Pretoria to the Free State, but recently took the son of a Basuto chief to Pretoria to the Free State, but recently took the son of a Basuto chief to Pretoria to the Free State Senator whiteside of the Free State Senator whiteside of the Boar victories. It is believed that some of the minor chiefs have received their advances not the minor chiefs have received their Fall of Ladysmith moon from General White:

"Ian. 6, 12:45 p. m.—Have beaten fallens to the disasters that have beaten fallens faritish arms, and there is no longer lany sustaining comfidence to busy up public opinion. The editorials this morning reflect the extreme gravity of the situation, with a painful undercurrent of ominous foreboding, mainly caused by the fact that while the Boers have now changed their tactics and assumed the offensive General Ruller is apparently unable to do more to assist General White than in making a demonstration. The Morning Post again."

"In the week opens with, only fresh additions from Have beaten around me in great numbers, especially to the south, and I think renewed at tack very probable.

"The sun has falled and I cannot get further information, from Lady-mith until tomorrow."

London, Jan. 7.—General Buller sends the following from Free Camp, dated today: "This from White, dated Saturday, 3:15 p. m."

"Attack renewed. Very hard press."

"I have absolutely no more news, and ent by a pigeon or runner. Its purport trymches there were all occupied by the enemy."

Two Movements.

The Times publishes a dispatch from Ladysmith, dated Jan. 1, recording two night movements on the part of the Boers to assault the town. These had to be abandoned when the British defences were reached, but the correspondent says it was apparent that the great attack would not be long delayed. He adds:

"I have absolutely no more news, and there is no sun. There is a camp rumor that White defeated the enemy at 5 this affermion and took 400 prisoners, sent by a pigeon or runner. Its purport is serious enough."

I have absolutely no more news, and there is no sun. There is a camp rumor that White defeated the enemy at 5 this affermion and took 400 prisoners, listes the following dispatch from Gentral assented that Mr. C asked for a day is the still the sentence of the state senator cared had not one with Wellcome. Its serious enough.

The transposition from Ladymenth added also it recently and the term of the State Company of

Lendon, Jan. § 4:50 a. m.—Great Britain has to face the terrible posselbility irat the next news will be the several the several state of ladysenith. The disquisting feature is that the floores seem to have sufficient forces to deter General Bulleform attacking while themselves were various, and the Borrs seemed by the search of the summer attacking while themselves were working, and the Borrs seemed by the passelves of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, or which apparently the work in the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, or which apparently the work in the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, or which apparently the work in the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, which apparently the work in the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, the presence of the south of the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster, and the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster in the presence of this ominous stunation, even General French's disaster in the presence of this ominous stunation, and the comparison of the desiration of the White and the comparison of the desiration of the White and the comparison of the desiration of the present concluded the strength of the terribulation of Mr. Whiteside the war office the following massage groups the public in the present concluded the strength of the terribulation of the White and the comparison of the desiration of the White and the comparison of the desiration of the White and the comparison of the desiration of the White and the comparison of the desiration o

S this afternoon and took 400 prisoners.

"I sent all available troops yesterday to make demonstration at Colenso. The tremches there were all occupied by the enemy."

ATTACK ON COLENSO.

General Clery Mached Against Boers
There.

London, Jan. 7.—The war office publishes the following dispatch from General flats the following dispatch from General forms and in the legislative in the legislative in the grand jury proceedings were port that a serious accident has happened to the First battalion of the Sufside went over the folk regiment.

"From news just come to hand from was one of his assorted was one of his assorted.

Cotal Abstinence and Non=Catholic Missions

NEW HOME OF THE SALT LAKE HERALD.

stand upon two matters which may at first appear to have but little in common. These two matters are her work in the cause of total abstinence and her preaching of Catholic deetrine to those not in her fold. In all parts of our land where non-Catholic mission work has been attempted it has met with success, greater or less. Not only

(BY REV, T. F. BURKE.)

For some years the Catholic church and the immoralities of individuals: we fin America has taken a prominent community and what her members do;

SAMERING TO THE CORNEL TO THE